

MRS. SCHUBERT DIES AT NOON

35 Year Old Woman Dead at Her Home Here After Long Illness.

Mrs. A. G. Schubert, 35, after an illness since last October, died at 11:15 a. m. today at her home, 308 Seventh avenue south.

Funeral services, not yet complete, probably will be held Monday morning at St. Mary church with burial at Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Schubert was an active church worker in the St. Mary parish, and was a member of the Women's Guild and the Mission society.

Madeline Braun was born February 7, 1893 at Maple Lake and was married at St. Cloud October 28, 1919 to A. G. Schubert. They have made their home here since. An adopted daughter, Patricia, survives in addition to Mr. Schubert.

Also surviving are the deceaseds parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Braun, and the following sisters and brothers Mrs. F. B. Harrington, Bozeman, Mont.; Mrs. Frank Cassidy, and Arthur Braun, Helena, Mont.; Ben Landwehr and Andrew Landwehr of Los Angeles; Adolph Landwehr and Alphonse, Roman, Ray, Carl and Theresa Braun, all of St. Cloud; and Sister Madeline, O. S. B., of Stillwater.
