

Marie Wittrock Is Bride Of Leo Hogrefe

June 30 at 10 a.m. was the wedding day for Marie Wittrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Wittrock, Clearwater and Leo Hogrefe, son of Mrs. Frank Holts, Watkins.

Rev. Severin Schwieters officiated at the double ring ceremony at St. Mary's Help of Christian church, St. Augusta. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

Attendants were a brother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hogrefe and a brother and sister of the bride, James and Florence Wittrock. Ushers were Thomas Wittrock and Charles Hogrefe.

The church choir sang. At the presentation of yellow and white carnations at the altar of the Blessed Virgin, the choir sang "On This Day."

The satin gown worn by the bride had a lace covered bodice with scalloped sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The skirt of tiered tulle ruffles had lace appliques with seed pearl and rhinestone trim. Her bouquet was an arrangement of red roses highlighted with gladioli and white roses. A crown of pearls and miniature white leaves held her veil. She wore pearl and crystal earrings.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in yellow taffeta and crystalette. They were afternoon length and featured the scalloped sabrina neckline and box pleated skirt. They wore matching headpieces. Their crystal earrings and white gloves were the gifts of the bride. Their colonial bouquets were of yellow and white carnations.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. Those who assisted there were Mrs. Henry Meyer, Mrs. Richard Janski and Mrs. Albert Beumer, Beatrice and Alice Pelzer.

A reception was held at the Starlight inn, Luxemburg. Mrs. Felix Kieke and Mary Kieke cut the wedding cake. Joan Beumer and Joyce Wittrock were in charge of the gift tables. Others who assisted were Doris Meyer, Eileen Kieke, John Beumer and Franklin Meyer.

Guests attended the wedding from cities in Oregon, Michigan, Illinois and from Minneapolis, Willmar, Grove City, Watkins and Litchfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogrefe will be at home at 304 Eighth avenue south on return from a wedding trip to Milbank, S.D. and West Bend, Iowa. The bride is employed at S. S. Kresge company and the bridegroom by Franklin Manufacturing.
