Public Lands Discrimination Charges To Be Aired June 18

BUTTE (UPI) — Allegations that federal regulation of mining on public lands discriminates against the small operator will be aired here June 18 by a U.S. Senate mineral subcommittee panel.

Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, will head a three-man task force representing the subcommittee of the Senate Interior Committee.

W. G. Maloney, secretary and manager of the Mining Association of Montana, said he had been notified of the hearing by Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., who also will be on the panel. A Republican member of the group will be named later.

Metcalf said the hearing will be held under Public Law 167, regulating mining operations for sand, gravel, common building stone, pumice and other materials.
