

Landwehrs Feted For Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landwehr, who were married May 6, 1919, in Elbowoods, N.D., were honored at a golden anniversary dinner at Tamarack Inn by their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The tables were decorated with arrangements of yellow roses and chrysanthemums and gold candles. The anniversary cake was ornamented with gold flowers and lettering. They were presented with a monetary gift by their children and several original paintings by their 14 grandchildren. They have three great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Landwehr were engaged in farming for several years in Elbowoods and then owned and operated a general store and cafe there before moving to Kalispell in 1936. Here they built and operated the Landwehr Cabins on North Main until 1944. Landwehr was engaged in carpentry until his retirement in 1958.

Surprising the couple for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin of Oakland, Calif. Others attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William (Eleanor) Hedstrom and Richard, Steven and John, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Landwehr and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Landwehr and Tom, Mrs. Delores Lampman and Virginia, Sandra and Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Schuldheiss and Timmy and Mrs. Robert McGuire, all of Kalispell, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landwehr of Thompson Falls.
