

Have Honeymoon In California

Leona C. Schimanaki and William W. Landwehr were married October 23 at St. Lawrence church in Duelm with Rev. Henry Frank, officiating at the ceremony at 8 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schimanaki, Rte one, St. Cloud, and the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Clara Landwehr, 1723 Seventh avenue south.

Maid of honor was Rose E. Schimanaki with Donna Landwehr and Alice Schimanaki, bridesmaids.

Albert Ferber, Paul Thometz and Edgar Emmerich were Mr. Landwehr's attendants.

Music during the nuptial mass was furnished by Mrs. Ed Chmielewski.

White slipper satin with a hoop skirt brought up at the bottom was worn by the bride. Her fingertip circular veil was trimmed with wide lace and she carried red roses on a prayer book with streamers.

Rose wore dusty rose satin, styled like the bride's and carried blue chrysanthemums.

Gowns of the bridesmaids, in powder blue, also were styled like that of the bride. Their carnations were rose colored.

A wedding dance was held later in the evening at the Granite City Coliseum.

Breakfast at 9:30 was served at the home of the bride's parents, followed by an 11:30 dinner at the Hotel Spaniol where covers were laid for 30 guests. Assisting at the reception at the bride's home from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., were Mrs. Leo Landwehr and Mrs. Dorothy Staulkamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Landwehr have gone to California for their honeymoon and after November 27, will be at home at 1723 Seventh avenue south.
