

Miss Krieger Wed To St. Cloud Man In St. Paul Today

A marriage that will bring a St. Paul girl to St. Cloud a bride, is that of Miss Marcella Krieger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Krieger, 755 Hall avenue, St. Paul, and Mr. Carl P. Doerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Doerner, 15th avenue south, which took place with nuptial mass at St. Michael's church, St. Paul, at 9 o'clock this morning, Msgr. O'Neil pronouncing the marriage vows.

Garden flowers, arranged in baskets and vases, adorned the candle-lit altar, and were interspersed with palms that backed the sanctuary. The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, played by Miss Louise Vierling, announced the entrance of the bridal party. During the mass, Miss Bernadette Buckley sang Gounod's "Ave Maria," "Adore and Be Silent," and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

Dr. Irvin O'Connor of St. Paul and Dr. N. T. Ahmann of St. Cloud, as ushers, preceded the bridal party to the altar. Mr. Doerner had for his best man, Mr. Edward Schmitt of Hutchinson. Miss Krieger's sister, Miss Dolores Krieger, was the bridesmaid.

The bridesmaid was gowned in jade green georgette, fashioned on straight lines, and embroidered in crystal beads. Silver slippers, and a band of silver in her hair, completed her costume. She carried a sheaf of garden flowers.

The bride entered with, and was given in marriage by her father. Her gown, of bridal satin, was modishly trimmed with rose point lace, and caught at the side with a pearl ornament. Her veil, held in place with a chaplet of pearls, was arranged in fan effect, and fell to the hem of her train, of full court length. Her flowers were Ophelia roses, white sweet peas and baby breath, showered with sweet peas.

The breakfast, served at the home of the bride's parents, followed the marriage ceremony, and was attended by members of the bridal party, and intimate friends. The rooms were tastefully appointed in vari-colored garden flowers.

Guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doerner, parents of the groom, his brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Doerner, Jr., and Mr. F. J. Doerner, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zierden (Mathilda Doerner), Mr. George Heinsch and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hunstiger (Clear Doerner), all of St. Cloud; Dr. Harold Gross, Escanaba, Mich., Mr. Charles B. Peters, Superior, Wis.; Mr. Albert Cook, Duluth, and the Misses Dollie and Katherine Hilgers, of Jordan, Minn.

Mr. Doerner and his bride will tour the northern part of the state on their honeymoon. The at home cards read "101 Fourteenth avenue north, St. Cloud, after September 1."

The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's academy, St. Paul, and Mr. Doerner claims St. John's university, Collegeville, as his Alma Mater.
