

HUSS-DOERNER MARRIAGE —

Miss Cyrilla Doerner, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doerner, Sr., of 109, Fifteenth avenue south became the bride this morning of Armand Huss, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huss, also of St. Cloud, at a marriage ceremony solemnized at seven o'clock at St. Mary's by the Reverend Father Luke.

Miss Doerner was gowned in white canton crepe with white crystal and pearl ornaments. The tulle veil, extending into a train, was held by beautiful clusters of lilies-of-the-valley. The bride carried a white prayer book with white satin markers and a shower of lilies-of-the-valley and bridal wreath arranged among the satin ribbons. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. Miss Crescentia Huss, of St. Cloud, who was the bride's only attendant, was gowned in a cinder grey colored crepe, with large picture hat to match. She carried a large arm bouquet of Ophelia roses. Carl Doerner a brother of the bride was the best man.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doerner. Covers were placed for 24 immediate relatives of the families. The living rooms and dining room were in the colors white and pink with the pretty bridal wreath and pink roses predominating. A large white wedding cake was the centerpiece.

The bride was educated at St. Mary's and also at the St. Cloud Business College and has many friends in her home city. Mr. Huss is a graduate at St. John's University and an accomplished musician on the piano. The marriage had been set for June 11th but was changed to June 1st because the groom was leaving to accept a flattering position in one of the large theatres of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

Mrs. C. L. Fuller, a sister of the bride, arrived from Isabel, South Dakota for the wedding. Mrs. Fuller will remain in St. Cloud for a few weeks visit. Mr. and Mrs. Huss left this morning for their new home in Eau Claire and carried with them the best wishes of many friends.
