

Essay Winner

Dorothy Doerner, St. Cloud, recently was awarded the first prize for an historical essay which she had submitted in the Junior Historian writing contest, according to a letter she received from the superintendent of the Minnesota Historical society, sponsor of the contest.

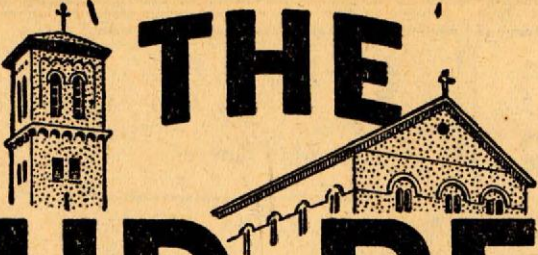

Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Doerner. She is a high school student in the Scholasticate of St. Benedict, St. Joseph.

She based her essay on the written memoirs of her grandfather, the late Edward Doerner. As her prize she has chosen an award of $50 in cash and a copy of "Minnesota the North Star in Pictures," from among the several prizes offered by the Historical society.

As a result of her fine showing in the contest, the Junior Historian chapter of St. Benedict's academy is also eligible for a seal and a blue ribbon to be added to the charter of the chapter.
