W. C. O. F. Tonight.

The W. C. O. F. meets tonight at Edelbrock hall. All members are requested to be present.

Married This Morning.

Rev. J. R. Atwill, pastor of the Episcopal church, this morning spoke the words which united in marriage Miss Bessie Maness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manes, and Mr. Ira Adams, a young man well known in the city where he has been in the employ of the Public Service Co., for several years. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage. The bride was attended by Miss Dora Adams. Jesse Huston was best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Seattle, Wash., where the groom has secured profitable employment.

Streitz-Richter Nuptials.

Miss Amelia Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richter of this city, and Leonard Streitz, a well known young man of St. Cloud, were married this morning at the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Alfred O. S. B., officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Richter while Carl Dambly, a nephew of the groom, was best man. Both the bride and her attendant were dressed in white. The children's choir of the church sang the high mass. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party went to the home of John Streitz in the town of St. Cloud where they received the guests during the day. The newly married couple will be at home in this city.

Spaniol Scharenbroich Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 9 o'clock this morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception when Josephine Annette Scharenbroich the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scharenbroich became the wife of John Spaniol, eldest son of Alderman and Mrs. Peter Spaniol. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Estelle E. Scharenbroich and a brother of the groom, George Spaniol was best man. The bride wore a gown of dress embroidery and wash chiffon and her attendant was gowned in a dress of cream colored silk mull. Louis P. Mocs, Joseph Koschiol, Eugene Scharenbroich and Leo M. Rosenberger acted as ushers. As the bridal party entered the church the organ pealed forth Lohengrin's wedding march. During the high mass which followed St. Mary's choir sang Zangls mass in honor of St. Cassian. M. Albert of San Francisco sang Guonod's Ave Maria with beautiful effect. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party repaired to the home of the groom's parents on Sixth avenue north, where a wedding breakfast was served. From there the party went to the home of the bride's parents where the guests were received during the day. The young couple will be at home at No. 212 Tenth avenue north after October 1st.

Doerner-Hunstiger Wedding.

At 9 o'clock this morning at the Holy Angels Cathedral occurred the marriage of Miss Clara Doerner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doerner of Clear Lake, to Mr. Frank Hunstiger, one of St. Cloud's most prominent business men. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Leo Gans and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. The bride looked charming in her gown of white marquisette over taffetta. She wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley. Miss Frances Doerner, of Fargo, N. D., a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was gowned in a dress of champagne colored liberty silk made empire, as was also that of the bride. The groom was attended by his brother, Joseph Hunstiger. Both gentlemen wore the conventional black. When the bridal party entered the church a wedding march was played by Organist Hubert Gans. The full choir of the Cathedral, of which the bride was for several years a member sang Gollmann's mass. A beautiful soprano and alto duett was sung for offertory. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party repaired to the home of the groom's parents, on first street north, where a wedding breakfast was served. The house was beautifully decorated with golden rod and sumach and cut flowers. The happy couple left this afternoon for a trip over the Great Lakes to Buffalo and other eastern cities. After their return they will be at home after October 1st in a residence which the groom owns, on the corner of First street and Thirteenth avenue south.
